-Present: Renee Gallegos (teacher), Stephanie Marcon (parent)
-Stephanie has connections with an assistant superintendent in Encinitas bilingual school district in CA who had a lot of recommendations she would like to share with us.
-Grand Canyon, NAU, etc may be good resources
-Renee: is suggesting an overnight K/1st grade field trip at the zoo. Trip would include a flashlight hike, BBQ, smores, nocturnal animal experience, etc. In the morning, they get a sunrise hike and admission to the zoo for the day. There is a lot of student/family and teacher interest. Is from 5:30 pm until 9 am the next morning. Would occur April 26th, the day before the Friday off on the 27th. Includes science lesson education. PTO is willing to contribute $1000, which would make the cost per student $35. Minimum number of students is 25. There are 38 students between the 1st and 2nd grades. Every 10 students includes a free chaperone. Parents would need to pay for themselves. Renee is willing to provide a family night to provide information the week before. She will look into the option of inviting the older kids. Would be parent drop off and pick up. We can potentially look into the use of tax credit money to help supplement.
-Renee: regarding breakdown of classes for next year: Current best case scenario:
-Kindergarten: 15-17 students); 1st grade: 21-23 students; 2nd grade: 20-24 students; 3rd grade: 10-13 students; 4th grade: 4-7 students; 5th grade: 2-3 students; 6th grade: 1-2 students

- English: Renee could do K-2 (~56 students); Rachel could do grades 3-6
- Alternative: K-2 teacher, 3-4 teacher, 5-6 part-time tutor
- 40/40/20 for K/1 has worked very well so far for Spanish/Mandarin/English split time
- Ideally, science will start in 3rd grade starting next year.

6. Discussion Items
   a. Principal's Report
      - New math and science teacher started today (Emily Black) - she is planning the next 3 weeks to cover the most common 6 standards on upcoming AZ merit test. M-Th will include direct instruction, while Fridays will have a lesson that is experiment based. During the final month of classes, Emily Black will plan out the end of the year unit based on science kits we already have. Experiment days will include 3-6 grades
      - Enrollment
        - K: 17 students enrolled thus far
        - Matt will provide phone numbers to a PTO parent to do a welcome phone call for incoming families
        - Consider making a facebook page for incoming families (for carpooling purposes, etc) - Elba has offered to help, may be able to form the subgroup
      - AZ merit testing coming up - state changed the testing window to open earlier. AIMS science test is on April 18-19. Renee has volunteered to be the district coordinator for the AZ merit test.
      - Galileo testing finished last week. K math is now completed.
      - Matt emailed out the approval for contract with IEZP for special education documentation. The owner works with our special education contractor who made the referral. Lisa will also continue to stay on as our special education coordinator. We will vote over email to approve the IEZP contract.

b. Financial and Budget Update
   - Balance sheet: will deduct $46.55 from Tawnie Weaver’s reimbursement to account for the Treat of the Week Cash Account
   - For February 2018, our school is $5,991.58 in the black
   - Linda Dennis has agreed to come in once weekly to assist with bookkeeping; this week she will help with changing Quickbooks to the online program; will also help with student accounts and invoicing; she is available through June to continue helping, including closing out the current fiscal year.
   - Regarding replacement projectors for K, Matt sent an email regarding the options; we would prefer to continue using the same projectors we have; there is a new contact we can hire to help with IT setup of the new technology (and we will see if they can help with training the teachers);
we will set up training for using the interactive portion of the equipment.
We will vote on the projector purchase over email.
- We have state funds for AIMS intervention that can be used to pay a tutor to help with reading interventions; Matt will reach out to obtain her rate.
c. ESS Policy and Procedure
  - We will vote over email for the IEZP special education plan - they will provide documentation as we go forward; Matt will find out about specifics on developing policy and procedure

d. Review and revise draft of 2018-2019 school year calendar
  - Matt has a draft of a school year calendar; similar to PV district
  - Made changes back to quarters from trimesters, which was done previously
  - Start day would be August 9th (8th for K)
  - First quarter would end Oct 16th, with conferences right after that, and earlier than last year (which allows for earlier interventions)
  - Veteran's Day added back
  - Early release days on the 1st of every month for teacher development, and on the days prior to extended holidays
  - Will add on PTO events in the future
  - Will likely change monthly Parent Academy nights to once quarterly open-house style evenings
  - The dates for the 2 major Jewish holidays need to be off per Temple policy
  - Will send out the calendar draft as part of the weekly email update to be sent by Matt
  - Spring conferences will likely be used preferentially for students at risk for retention - will also move the conferences to February instead of March, to allow for more time - will move to Feb 21st and 22nd; those days will become half days for all students
  - Spring break coincides with PV district's schedule
  - For this next year, and even for the rest of the next year, we would like to incorporate daily morning exercises, mid-morning exercises; also, formal morning exchanges between the students and the teachers after the teacher enters the room.

e. Review intent to return teacher forms
  - 6 teachers do intend to return, 2 do not intend to return if offered a

f. Administrative task planning for remainder of 2017-18 school year
  - Matt is taking over the majority of administrative tasks; we are enlisting the assistance of Renee Gallegos with tasks like AZ merit testing; she is also helping with setting up lesson plans for the new science and math teacher. We will plan on providing a bonus.

g. 2018-2019 school structure planning
  - See above, will continue planning over the next week account for the administrative responsibilities, to be distributed in 8 equal payments between April-July.
